

Business Services — For employers, DRS offers valuable services at no cost to help meet business needs. As every company knows today, Virginia's workforce is becoming increasingly diverse. Employers must look for every opportunity to improve their workforce. People with disabilities represent the largest single block of untapped labor market resources. DRS provides employers with the following services:

- Staffing Services
- Financial Incentives
- Accessibility Analysis and Solutions
- Disability Education Programs for Businesses

Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Center — The Center provides integrated medical and vocational rehabilitation services addressing the comprehensive needs of clients to improve independence and employability. The campus houses a vocational school and medical rehabilitation units. Both offer state-of-the-art equipment and facilities, a professional, committed staff, and highly effective programs including:

- Counseling
- Vocational and Pre-Vocational Evaluation and Training
- Medical Rehabilitation Services
- Driver Education; Student Internships
- Post-Secondary Education/Rehabilitation Training Program
- Independent Living Skills Training
- Student Residency

Assistive Technology — DRS is committed to assisting persons with disabilities reach their full potential with the use of adaptive equipment, accommodations, and other assistive technology resources. The agency offers the following technology services and programs for consumers, as well as business, to support workplace accessibility. DRS can also provide assistance in identifying financial resources for purchasing assistive equipment.

- Virginia Assistive Technology System
- Rehabilitation Engineering
- Computer Accommodations

Partnerships in the Community — The Vocational Rehabilitation program, and other programs within DRS, work in partnership with many other businesses and organizations in an effort to assist individuals with disabilities to achieve employment and/or independence. Some of DRS' partners in the community include:

- Employment Services Organizations
- Centers for Independent Living
- Disability Services Boards
- NewWell Fund (formerly ATFLA)
- Workforce Centers
- High Schools and Institutions of Higher Education

